Thank you!

Here at Kozy Corners Family Restaurant we believe in the value of family and friends and the special bond these relationships foster. We hope that your dining experience at our restaurant embodies those values and strengthens your bonds with your family and friends, all while providing quality food at a fair price in a comfortable atmosphere. We appreciate your patronage and hope to continue serving you, your family and your friends for many years to come. We would also like to thank Sandy, John and Kathy for this opportunity and their continued support in helping provide service to the Oak Harbor community as well as neighboring communities. Kozy Corners Family Restaurant is a place where family comes first, friends become family and visitors become friends.
